1. The meeting was called to order by Vice-Chairperson Joiner at 6:30 p.m.

   Members Present: Buck, Moser-Kuiper, Murdoch, Joiner
   Members Absent: Hespen

2. Moved by Buck, seconded by Murdoch, to approve the June 13, 2022, meeting minutes as printed. The motion passed unanimously.

3. Members discussed the 4th of July Parade. Comments given:

   - Ask vehicles in the parade to play music.
   - Contact American House earlier to ride in the trolley and send them flyers.
   - Need a point person for the food.
   - Need a point person for volunteers.
   - Need a point person for prizes.
   - Need someone in charge of ice.
   - Hot dogs were packed in too tight in the refrigerator and the Health Department Inspector was concerned there was not enough circulation to keep the hot dogs cold.
   - Joe Lyons indicated this would be his last year to pop popcorn.
   - Need handout for volunteers which explain the crafts, prizes, and games.
   - Determine how many volunteers are needed. The Gateway Church had 2 shifts of volunteers; Ferrysburg Community Church had 1 shift of volunteers.
   - The signs for crafts and face painting were not at the park.
   - Next year arrive at the park at 8:45 a.m. to direct DPW crew on placement of tables.
   - The sand in the sand box was dirty – leaves and trash.
   - Notify the entire Commission when Redi-Rental drops off the games, tables and chairs.
   - The museum gave away 200 goodie bags.
   - Microphone needs to be turned up when the dignitaries are speaking.
   - Kids loved the prizes.
   - Heard many concerns with the breakfast.

4. The consensus of Commissioners was to place 7 of the lighted snowflakes on 174th Avenue, 4 at the intersection of Third Street and Pine Street, and the remaining snowflakes from the first pole on the east side of Pine Street near Wm. Ferry Park, on every other street light pole to Smith’s Bridge.

5. Commissioners discussed the low attendance at the Monster Bash last year and whether to host the Monster Bash in 2022. The consensus of members was to place this on the next agenda for discussion.
6. Moved by Buck, seconded by Moser-Kuiper, to select Commissioner Hespen as Chairperson for 2022-2023. The motion passed unanimously.
